ORDER

This matter is before the court on the government's Motion to Continue Trial [29] due to counsel has been out of the office on medical leave and needs additional time to prepare for trial. The defendant objects to the continuance. Good cause being shown, the motion shall be granted and the trial shall be continued.

IT IS ORDERED that the motion to continue trial is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial previously set for August 26, 2014 is continued to October 14, 2014.

2. The time between today's date and the commencement of trial is deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that in continuing trial the ends of justice outweigh the best interest of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial and for the reasons set out in the government's motion to continue trial, See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(7)(A).

3. A party may object to this order by filing an "Objection to Magistrate Judge's Order" no later than September 2, 2014. The objecting party must comply with all requirements of NECrimR 59.2.

DATED August 27, 2014.
